GEPF congratulates Abel Sithole on his appointment

The Government Employees Pension Fund welcomes the appointment of Mr Abel Sithole as the new Chief Executive Officer of the Public Investment Corporation (PIC).

The GEPF chairperson, Dr Renosi Mokate, on behalf of the GEPF Board of Trustees and its employees congratulates Mr Sithole on his appointment and wishes him well at the PIC.

“We thank Abel for his hard work and dedication to the Fund and its stakeholders. He brought stability and direction to the GEPF at the time when stability was needed and we are assured that he will do the same at the PIC. This is not a goodbye but see you later, said Dr Mokate.

Referring to his appointment, Mr Sithole said, “I am honored to have served the GEPF and leave behind a strong organization and a great team which I had the privilege to lead.”

The GEPF will in due course announce the process it will undertake to appoint its next Principal Executive Officer.
